FORT MACKINAC

FOUNDED 1780

COME SEE WHAT'S CAPTIVATED GENERATIONS
 ALL WITHIN A WEEKEND.

The cannon blasts, the rifles fire, the soldiers march and history comes alive. The oldest public building in Michigan and 13 other historical structures boast exhibits explaining everything from military training and battles, to medical treatments, to family life within the fort.

Regular demonstrations and tours by costumed interpreters are scheduled throughout the day, with special programs for both adults and kids highlighting different aspects of the fort's history.

More than just a military outpost, Fort Mackinac served as a home for soldiers and their families and eventually the headquarters for Mackinac National Park, where tourists to the island visited the great fortress on the bluff, much like they do today.

All fourteen buildings in the fort are restored and open to the public. They are furnished with period settings highlighting the building's particular function or a themed exhibit.

THE RICHARD & JANE MANOOGIAN

MACKINAC ART MUSEUM

Your ticket also includes admission to the Richard and Jane Manoogian Mackinac Art Museum. Located in Marquette Park along Main Street, the museum allows visitors to experience fine and decorative arts inspired by Mackinac through the ages. Children interested in creating their own art will enjoy the Kids' Art Studio (open June through August). Art instructors on staff present a variety of hands-on art activities inspired by Mackinac and let your creativity flow.
