ICONIC

The cannon blasts. The rifles fire. The soldiers march. History comes alive. The oldest public building in Michigan and 13 other historical structures boast exhibits explaining everything from military training and battles, to medical treatments, to family life within the fort. Regular demonstrations and tours by costumed interpreters are scheduled throughout the day, with special programs for both adults and kids highlighting different aspects of the fort's history. More than just a military outpost, Fort Mackinac served as a home for soldiers and their families and eventually the headquarters for Mackinac National Park, where tourists to the island visited the great fortress on the bluff, much as they do today. All fourteen buildings in the fort are restored and open to the public. One of the more unforgettable aspects of a visit to Fort Mackinac is lunch at the Tea Room, operated by Grand Hotel, offering unparalleled views of Mackinac Island's downtown, the Straits of Mackinac, and the Mackinac Bridge.

Brand new for 2022 - a complete reimagining of the Schoolhouse! Now known as the Reading Room, as it would have been referred to in the 1880s, this immersive space will allow you to get an understanding of what it was like to be a soldier in the 1880s, and why the army felt it was a good idea to have reading rooms within its forts.

Your Fort Mackinac ticket also includes free admission to The Richard and Jane Manoogian Mackinac Art Museum, Biddle House, featuring the Mackinac Island Native American Museum, Benjamin Blacksmith Shop, American Fur Co. Store & Dr. Beaumont Museum, and McGulpin House. Dates of operation vary by site.
