Explore Michilimackinac’s Maritime History with ‘Maritime Michilimackinac’ June 11

MACKINAC ISLAND, MICH. — Join the interpretive staff at Colonial Michilimackinac June 11 for a dedicated look at Colonial Michilimackinac’s maritime history this Saturday, June 11.

Colonial Michilimackinac was a major hub for the Great Lakes Fur Trade, and its location where Lakes Michigan and Huron meet was crucial to its success. This special event will focus on Michilimackinac’s maritime history. Join the interpretive staff as they discuss and demonstrate the many different ways Michilimackinac’s historic residents interacted with and worked on the water.

“We’ll be doing things that are truly special that guests wouldn’t be able to see otherwise,” said Craig Wilson, Mackinac State Historic Parks Chief Curator. “Even if someone has visited in the past, there is always something new to see or do.”

Special programs will take place throughout the day, including a Weapons on the Water Demonstration at 11:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m., a program showcasing what a Voyageur crew would eat at 12:00 p.m., and, at 2:00 p.m., a look at the boats and canoes of Colonial Michilimackinac out on the water.

All special programs are included with regular admission to Colonial Michilimackinac, which is $14.50 for adults and $8.75 for children ages 5-12 and free for Mackinac Associates members. Colonial Michilimackinac is open 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.
