DOWNTOWN MACKINAC

MACKINAC'S PAST TUCKED INTO THE PRESENT

Nestled throughout the hustle and bustle of downtown Mackinac Island, Historic Downtown Mackinac takes you on a journey from the late 18th century to today, with historic architecture, incredible stories, exquisite art, and world-class exhibits. The Biddle House, featuring the Mackinac Island Native American Museum, allows you to step into the 1830s home of Agatha and Edward Biddle and experience a time of change for the Anishnaabek of northern Michigan. The Richard & Jane Manoogian Mackinac

Art Museum, in front of Fort Mackinac in Marquette Park, features a rare and exceptional collection of Mackinac-related art and photography. The Benjamin Blacksmith Shop transports you to the 1950s where a working blacksmith creates in front of you. The American Fur Co. Store & Dr. Beaumont Museum is home to Mackinac's Medical Miracle, where an accidental gunshot altered medical history. Finally, the McGulpin House is one of the island's oldest structures, dating to 1790.

A Time of Change. The 1830s were a decade of change for the Anishnaabek of Mackinac Island. Open May 9–October 5.

★ BENJAMIN Blacksmith Shop

Mackinac at Work. See a working blacksmith and learn about blacksmithing on Mackinac Island. Open May 9–October 5.

Be Inspired. One of the most diverse art galleries in the region. Home to Iconic Mackinac juried art exhibition. Open May 9–October 5.

Mackinac's Medical Miracle. It was here that a gunshot wound started a medical journey that changed medical history. Open June 7–August 23.

MH McGulpin House

Historic Mackinac. One of the island's oldest residential structures, dating to 1790. Open June 7–August 23.
