

Mackinac Island State Park Commission
Policy

Churches

Minutes: June 19, 1964, p.889-90

Preamble:

Two historic church buildings, the Mission Church on Mackinac Island and the reconstructed Ste. Anne de Michilimackinac at Mackinaw City are under the jurisdiction of the Commission.

General Policy

These churches are treated as historic shrines and are not to be used for regular church services by any group. Any meetings or services held there shall be under the auspices of the Mackinac Island State Park Commission, and any religious services shall be strictly commemorative or dedicatory in nature and shall be in accord with the historic uses of the church involved.
